Golden Guitar Greats

The Spotnicks + andra artister/other artists

We'll have our heroes—larger-than-life figures who fulfill our dreams of whom we admire and revere and aspire to becoming and who act as our role-models. And we'll have our villains—those we tend to be ephephoral in the matter with one did feel supplanted by a more powerful figure. And we'll have our outcasts, especially as deshyved teenagers, will have harbored the desire to be a great rock band, but were rebuffed by the establishment whom we would try to emulate and our imaginations would have us believe that we were the next big thing. And we'll have our adoring fans. To all members of that frustrated fraternity, this collection is dedicated.

The arrival of Rock 'n' roll in the mid-1950s ushered in the age of the electronic guitar which in single or more forms would become the central instrument of several musical groups. A number of solo guitarists would also achieve fame in their own right. This collection is dedicated to the rock and roll group of stars who certainly qualify as Golden Guitar Greats.

Les Paul was a pioneer of the electrified guitar and is truly legend as Little Rock Getaway will recall. Rock 'n' roll's first guitar hero was Duane Eddy and his much imitated sound was the first to be recorded on three golden hits: Because They're Young, Papa and Sailed of Paducah. And there our own home-grown legends. All we need say is Aztec, Wonderful Land and Guitar Tango. And we should not forget Bert Weedon who was so influential as both musician and mentor.

Golden Guitar Greats has those 'classic' hits which rightly belong in rock's Hall of Fame: Telstar, The Diamonds, Diamonds Jeri Harlan & Tony Martin, Wipe Out, The Surfaris, Alibonzo, Fleetwood Mac, Wipe Don't Tell the Ladies, Martha & The Vindictives, Martha & The Los Indios Tabalarios, Sleepwalkers, Santo & Johnny, Sabre Dance, Los Atlantes.

Those players who straddle the lines: Chet Atkins and Mark Knopfler. The powerhouse rhythms of Big Beef, Big Boy, Big Boy, Big Boy, Big Boy, the fusion of Latin and Afro-Cuban styles which can only mean Santana... and the guitar star and his band, the visionary Link Wray. 30 timeless names coupled with 40 solid favourites.

Designed to produce a sensational and definitive tribute.

CATS

Mit dieser Box haben wir den Beginn (The First Wave) des Surf Sounds dokumentiert. Der eigentliche Boom der Surf Music begann zwar erst richtig im Jahre 1963. Diese Musik ist bis heute von Instrumental-Bein geprägt. So ist es nicht verwunderlich, dass in dieser Box überwiegend Instrumentals zu hören sind – aber diese Titel sind durchweg eine „Shitenswelt“! Viele Raritäten und treibende Rhythmen lassen die Fülle nicht zur Ruhe kommen. Nur wenigen Lokaltiten waren große Erfolge in diesem Genre beschieden. Die absolute Ausnahme waren natürlich die Beach Boys, die es schafften weltweit erfolgreich zu werden. Auch das Duo Jan & Dean verschaffte sich nationale Aufmerksamkeit. Selbstverständlich sind hier beide Interpreten mit ihren frühen LPs vertreten. Ein Mann der ersten Stunde des Surf Sounds Dick Dale hält mit seinem besten Songs der Anfangszeit den Laden in Schwingung und die Rock & Roll Legenden Duane Eddy und Link Wray lassen mit ihrem einzigartigen Gitarren-Sound die Wände wackeln. Die gesamte Box ist gespickt mit allen Surf-Golden der ersten Stunde: darunter The Ventures, The Champs, The Spotnicks, The Shadows, The Mar-Kets, The Chantays und viele andere.

This box documents the beginning, well, "The First Wave" of the Surf Sound, even though the actual boom of surf music began only in 1963. This music was and always will be about instrumental tracks. So it is not surprising that instrumentals feature prominently in this box – and they really are a "blast for the ears". Many rudies and those driving rhythms make sure that you won't be able to rest your feet.

Few vocalists were granted great success in this genre. The absolute exception was of course the Beach Boys, who managed to be successful worldwide. Even the duo Jan & Dean got international attention. Of course both artists are represented here with their early LPs. Dick Dale, a main of the first hour of the Surf Sound, is presented here with his best songs from the early days, and the Rock & Roll legends Duane Eddy and Link Wray shake the walls with their unique guitar sound. The entire box is filled with the Surf greats of the first hour, including The Ventures, The Champs, The Spotnicks, The Shadows, The Mar-Kets, The Chantays, and many others.
